

STAYING CONNECTED JUNE 2021

In June and July a brief "Staying Connected" e-mail will replace our monthly "ALLways" newsletter. The newsletter will be back in August.

Have a wonderful summer, everyone!

Preparing for the Fall Semester

This summer, we are using the pause in classes to prepare the online course catalog and plan for registration for our upcoming fall 2021 semester. The online link to the catalog will be available in early August. We will remind you when the catalog is available and review the registration deadlines in next month's "Staying Connected".

Many new coordinators and courses have been added to our already strong curriculum. This fall, our courses include a rich variety of areas. You will have the following choices: communication, current events, film, gardening, history, literature, music, philosophy, poetry, politics, religion, and writing. A veritable feast! We look forward with great anticipation to learning together.

See you then!

We Welcomed New Members on June 14th

Joining ALL during the Pandemic did not give our new members a clear idea of who we really are. On Monday, June 14th, The ALL Board held a Zoom meeting for the new members who registered to attend. We wanted them to know that there is much more to ALL, so each committee chair or representative explained what their committee does to make ALL a successful organization. We emphasized that we are a volunteer organization and hoped that some would join one of the various committees discussed. Since ALL is also a social group, we also spoke about the various hospitality and special events that occur in a “normal” ALL year as well as the creation and the yearly publication of Reflections, a literary magazine which contains writings and photographs submitted by our members. The presentation was followed by a question-and-answer session during which the new members asked important questions and offered some insightful suggestions.
